Using your information, we can send you email messages (if you have opted to receive them) that will matter to you. For example, if you live in Nova Scotia and show an interest in art, we could send you an open house notice for an art school in Halifax. Please note that we never give your email address to anyone. We will send information on behalf of our partners to you only if you opt in to this service.

Information, like what school you are going to attend or are attending, helps us to make sure we are creating the best possible site for you!

To help us to market to our partners (who provide us with the funds to keep this great website going) by providing them with statistics. Information, like the percentage of people registered on our websites that are interested in studying nursing, is important to them when they are deciding to buy advertising on our pages.

While we will make every effort to make sure your personal information remains private, we may be compelled by law to reveal your personal information if we are required to by a subpoena, court order, or legal process.

You also have the right to the erasure of your data. If you would like to have your personal information completely removed from our database, please contact info@SchoolFinder.com and provide either the email address used to create the account, or your username.
